

Miranda Morad
General Counsel
MarketAxess Europe and Trax

Miranda Morad joined MarketAxess Europe and Trax as General Counsel in August 2013. Ms. Morad is responsible for oversight of all regulatory, legal and compliance matters for MarketAxess Europe and Asia, and Trax. Ms. Morad is a member of the management team for Europe and Asia and advises the business on a broad range of regulatory, corporate, contractual, commercial and governance issues. She is in regular communication with regulatory authorities in the UK and across Europe and Asia, lobbying and advising the business on managing regulatory change. In recognition for her work across the industry, Ms. Morad was selected as one of Financial News' 100 most influential women in financial services in EMEA for 2016.

Before her current role with MarketAxess and Trax, Ms. Morad has held a range of legal roles at such firms as GFI Group, Berwin Leighton Paisner, Goldfarb, Seligman & Co, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, and the European Commission. As a part of her previous experience with Goldfarb, Seligman & Co, Miranda is also a qualified advocate at the Israeli Bar.

Ms. Morad graduated from Magdalene College, Cambridge University and is fluent in Hebrew and French.